PATTERSON WINS SUIT FROM BRACE

JURY FINDS DEAF-MUTE HAS NO CLAIM FOR WAGES.

WORK DONE NOT ON CONTRACT BUT AS SON

Case Lasted Until 10 o'clock Last Night But Jury Did Not Meet Until This Morning for Decision.

Charles Patterson, defendant in the suit for $6,480 for labor brought by C. Edward Brace, was victorious. The case was finished at 10 o'clock last night but the jury was not dismissed until today. Meeting at 9 o'clock they brought in a verdict for the defendant in less than an hour. R. W. Graham was foreman.

All of the testimony was of special interest because of the condition of the plaintiff who is deaf and dumb. Early in his boyhood he was blind also but was cured by an eye specialist. Until the close of the testimony last night, the court room was comfortably filled with interested listeners.

The defense won by two main lines of testimony and argument: That Brace's services were not worth more than that which he received during the twenty years and that all that he did was gratuitous in the nature of a family relation.

Evidence was that Brace had been given good care, clothes, doctor's bills, and was treated like one of the family. On the other hand, neighbors testified that he worked when he felt like it and was not equal to an ablebodied man on the farm.

The judge's instructions to the jury were that they should find for the defendant if they believed from the evidence that there was no contract and that Brace worked for the man who had befriended him as a son would work for a father. The plaintiff asserted that there was a contract at one time.

Another point for the plaintiff was that Brace had been traded in harvest time for regular men. It was also shown that the defendant had left long for visits of considerable length, leaving the plaintiff to care for the farm. Brace also said that he sold magazines at times to get more money.

Treated Him Like a Son.

Mr. Patterson on the stand said that he had treated the unfortunate boy and man like a son but had always told him that he would not do more for him than to give him a home and some spending money. On account of his physical condition, he was never made to do anything.

Three times Brace grew restless and desired to make trips and each time the money was furnished by Mr. Patterson. First he went to New York to see his mother just after he was 21 years old. During the world's fair in St. Louis, he went to live with a cousin there. Each time he asserted that he was going for good to live with his relatives.

When he wanted to leave in 1912, Mr. Patterson warned him that he could not come back if he left this time but was welcome to make his home there the rest of his life if he would stay. Roy Wells, son-in-law of Mr. Patterson, and his wife testified that when they took the farm in 1904-5 it was made plain to Ed Brace that he could stay on the same basis as formerly for his board and clothes.

Mr. Brace is without any funds and is upon the county. The county court will send him to his people at Seneca Falls, N. Y., rather than put him in the county farm of Nodaway county.

Miss Keller Tonight

Tonight at the First Methodist church Maryville will be given the first and perhaps only opportunity of having as their guest and speaker, the wonderful woman whom Mark Twain declared to be with Napoleon the two great characters of the Nineteenth century.

A girl at seven years old who did not even know that things had names and was conscious only of hunger, thirst, heat and cold and other bodily sensations in a nameless way; and yet a woman who was graduated with honors from a leading college at 24 and an acknowledged authority on many of the deep things of life; that is the person whom we have the privilege of hearing.

One of the interesting parts of all Miss Keller's lectures is that opportunity is given for those in the audience to ask questions. As soon as Mrs. Macy repeats the questions to Miss Keller a ready and usually unique answer follows.

Miss Keller has been brought to Maryville by the women of the Twentieth Century club. Feeling that the remarkable experience of seeing and hearing her should be placed within reach of all, the price was placed at fifty cents. No seats will be reserved.

The sleet which fell after the rain has taken away the slickness of the walks and it is expected that a record crowd will be in the First Methodist church tonight at 8 o'clock.

The players who will make the trip are: Wells, Rolland Cummings, Charles Cole, Dewey McCauley, Lot Walch, Donald Hamilton, Emery Masteller and John Walsh. The five to play in the opening game probably will not be selected until late Friday.—St. Joseph News-Press.

CAMERON GIVES GAME FOR TOMORROW ALSO.

BOTH LOST TO TARKIO

Hanson Will Return to Referee Benton —M. H. S. Game Friday—Central Asks for Games Here.

The Normal team will meet the William Jewell team tonight and the Missouri Wesleyans tomorrow night in games which may do much to boost the percentage of the local team from .500 where it now stands with Central.

Word came late yesterday afternoon that the Cameron game could be had. Director Walter Hanson, Coach George Palfreyman and the following players left this morning: Howard Leech capt.; Fred Vandersloot, Oscar Lollis, Lee Scarlett, Homer Scott, Ralph McClintoch and Walter Scott.

Director Hanson will return tomorrow, however, to officiate in the St. Joseph Benton—M. H. S. game here tomorrow night. The other official will accompany the St. Joseph team. The High school rooters are out in force again with tags saying "Won't you help us WIN from Benton High school."

The officials at Liberty and Cameron will be selected from the following list submitted by Mr. Hanson: "Red" Brown, Keedy Campbell, Riley, Ashley, Hoopes. All are Kansas City men and one of them will be brought here for the William Jewell game next week.

W. J. C. and Missouri Wesleyan both lost to Tarkio by heavy scores the first of this week and the neighboring school with Drury and Springfield Normal keeps its 1.000 percentage. Coach Clingenpeel of Central has written Mr. Hanson desiring a game here when the Fayette team is on a Northwest Missouri trip in February.

On account of the 25-24 score of the Normal at Fayette and the desire of the local rooters to see the two teams in action again, the game will probably be granted. Central goes down to Springfield Tuesday to tackle the Ozark whirlwinds in the same fashion the Normals did so a line on their strength comparatively may again be had.

Scores of the games tonight and tomorrow night will be received at the office of the Democrat-Forum as usual.

EVERY STREET LIKE A POND

All Who Could Skate Thought It Was Great—Slight Snow Helped. Pedestrians.

For those who can skate, this weather is great; but if you've forgotten, it's rotten. The earth, walk and street have it in for our feet, and most of our walking is sliding.

The thermometer too, how it does look blue; and the mercury's drop will not stop. In spite of our love, it's just 4 above, Mr. Brink says, however, 'twill lower.

The snowing helped some, for the moving was bum, and the sun made things lighter and brighter. But unless you're a sprinter, don't talk about winter; it has people grouchy and "Ouch—y."

WRAY CASE IS NEXT

MANY GUILFORD PEOPLE WILL ATTEND COURT.

JURORS EXCUSED TODAY

Prominent Stockman Charged With Theft of Two Yearlings—Many Continuances.

Another case which will attract a large crowd to the court room tomorrow is that of the State vs. Will N. Wray of Guilford. Mr. Wray faces the charge of grand larceny, the specific charge of the State being that he took two yearlings and sold them when they were not his property.

All of the town and community of Guilford are said to havetaken sides in the case and many assert that the charges are merely the result of illfeeling on the part of some enemies of Mr. Wray. So beside the large number of witnesses subpoenaed a crowd will probably come to the trial.

John M. Dawson will assist the prosecuting attorney in the prosecution. Shinabargar, Blagg & Ellison will represent the defendant. The jury was excused this morning and routine cases were heard by the Judge today in order that all might be fresh for another all day and part of the night trial.

The case of Harry Epperson, charged with carnal knowledge, was continued over to the next term of court.

Separate Maintenance for Mrs. Taylor.

Her suit for damages from Noble John Taylor and Sarah Taylor for alienation of her husband's affections was continued until the next term of court by agreement.

The libel cases of Rex Moody and Ada Allison against Frank Andrews were all continued over this term by agreement. Luke E. Brown, et al, defaulted in a note suit to Myrtle Hackett and judgment was given for $948.80 and costs. Bertha Royer and Anna Kelley were overruled on their motion to retax costs in their case against John M. Cooper, et al.

UGH! ACID STOMACH, SOURNESS, HEARTBURN, GAS OR INDIGESTION

The Moment "Pape's Diapepsin" Reaches the Stomach All Distress Goes.

Do some foods you eat hit back—taste good, but work badly; ferment into stubborn lumps and cause a sick, sour, gassy stomach? Now, Mr. or Mrs. Dyspeptic, jot this down: Pape's Diapepsin digests everything, leaving nothing to sour and upset you. There never was anything so safely quick, so certainly effective. No difference how badly your stomach is disordered you will get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it strengthens and regulates your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear.

Most remedies give you relief sometimes—they are slow, but not sure. "Pape's Diapepsin" is quick, positive and puts your stomach in a healthy condition so the misery won't come back.

You feel different as soon as "Pape's Diapepsin" comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—your stomach gets sweet, no gases, no belching, no eructations of undigested food, your head clears and you feel fine.

Go now, make the best investment you ever made, by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder.

Thanks, Bill, for those words of optimism.

Republican papers print cartoons and editorials about how anxious the Moosers are to get back into the fold; the Bull Moose papers indicate how much the G. O. MARYVILLE'S JITNEY BRAIN?

Hopkins Journal Says City Has "Limousine Form" But February 3 Will Decide Rest.

With her schools and fine churches, broad streets and beautiful residences, Maryville can justly lay claim to possessing a "limousine form," and the Journal feels quite sure that the town will not manifest a "jitney brain" by refusing to vote down the saloons at the approaching local option election to be held there Feb. 3. Some men and some papers are awfully afraid of being guilty of "butting in" if they say anything against the Maryville saloons simply because they do not reside at Maryville and consequently cannot vote at this election. But if the traffic is wrong, it seems to us that it is the right, even the duty, for all to lend their influence against the evil, and on this basis the Journal announced early in the campaign just where it stood in the matter, giving reasons for the position taken, and we have had no cause to change our mind in the matter, for every day we see evidence of why the saloons should be abolished. Even from a selfish standpoint, with no reference to right or wrong, the saloons should be suppressed, for what is gained in revenue will be more than lost from one source alone, i. e., a falling off in the attendance at the State Normal school in that city; in fact, if the saloons are allowed to live and thrive, the chances are favorable for Maryville in time losing the school entirely, as a big majority of the patrons will not continue to send their children to the Maryville Normal unless the saloons are abolished for there are other schools just as good where these students can attend free from the evil influences of the grog shops.

So we again repeat, if Maryville wishes to show something better than a "jitney brain," she will erase the only two "black spots" on her "limousine form" at the approaching local option election.—Hopkins Journal.

JEFFERSON MEN MEET FEB. 3

W. R Jackson and Other Men on Saints Highway Will Go to Kansas City to Give Facts.

The anticipated meeting of the directors of the Jefferson Highway, stretching from Winnepeg to New Orleans, will be held February 3 in Kansas City. The Saints Highway will be represented with men from all the towns along the route.

W. R. Jackson will go from Maryville and perhaps one or more members of the highway committee of the Maryville Commercial club. An effort will be made to have the Saints Highway designated as the official route between St. Joseph and Des Moines.

Failing in that, a split trail will be asked for, so that the route may be optional. It is believed by those living on this route that the greater number of large towns at convenient intervals apart; a more level road and other features will make the Saints a more attractive route for motorists.

In Memory of Mrs. T. R. DeWolf

The members of the Intellectual Club met at the home of Mrs. John Ringgold last Thursday afternoon and a short business session was held. The remainder of the meeting being in the nature of a memorial for one of our well loved members and neighbors, Mrs. T. R. DeWolf, who died December 30. This is the first death to occur in our circle since its organization some six years ago. Mrs. DeWolf was born August 3, 1841 at Hartgrove, Ohio and had been a member of the Christian church since early womanhood. Hers was a life full of Christian charity, always thoughtful of others, with kind words and loving deeds. Although we knew her to be a silent sufferer of an incurable malady yet her thoughts were ever for others, never of self. Through the kindness of the husband and daughter, T. R. DeWolf and Mrs. Bert Blackney, each member of the club was given a hand painted china plate, in remembrance of the deceased.

Resolved, That in the death of Mrs. Frances Sargent DeWolf, the Intellectual Club has lost a faithful member and the family a kind and loving wife and mother. Although she has passed from us, she still lives in our memories, and our lives have been bettered by her noble life. To the bereaved family we extend our heartfelt sympathy.

Be It Further Resolved, That these resolutions be spread on the records of the L. I. C., a copy given the bereaved family and a copy sent for publication.

It's Really Noticeable

How pleasantly some people buy goods on account, and after it has run six months or a year, how unpleasantly, they receive an invitation to come in and liquidate, at their very earliest opportunity.

Remember, for 1916, we want your money, not your account. Business before Pleasure.

N.B.—This costs me with check attached $1.20.

WEAK AND STRONG.

There are men of strength and men of weakness. We meet them both in every walk of life. Their birth or education or general surroundings may be the same, but a notably sharp line divides those who govern their inclinations from those whose inclinations govern them. On the one side we see strength, accomplishment and value, on the other weakness, spasmodic and ill directed effort and inefficiency.
